

«ZUKUNFT DER MEDIZIN: MINIMAL INVASIV»
DONNERSTAG, 5. SEPTEMBER 2019

Minimal invasive Diagnostik aus der Atemluft

Prof. Alexander Möller

Leitender Arzt Pneumologie, Universitäts-Kinderspital Zürich

Geb. 26.02.1966

Education and qualifications

hDoctor in medicine (MD)

University of Zurich, Switzerland, 1996

Pediatrics

Member of the Swiss Medical Board (FMH) as paediatrician, 2001

Pulmonology

Member of the Swiss Medical Board (FMH) as paediatric pulmonologist, 2003

Certificates

Graduate Certificate in Pediatric Sleep Science, University of Western Australia, Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry and Health Sciences, 2008

Certificate for Sleep medicine, Swiss Society of Sleep research, Sleep medicine and Chronobiology, 2010

GCP for investigators and sub-investigators

Venia legendi

Postdoctoral lecture qualification University of Zurich 2010

Adjunct professor

University of Zurich, Switzerland 2018

Employments

Resident/registrar/fellow

Internal medicine:

Clinic for Rheumatology, Leukerbad, Switzerland, 1995-96

General Hospital, Bulach, Switzerland. 1996-97

«ZUKUNFT DER MEDIZIN: MINIMAL INVASIV»
DONNERSTAG, 5. SEPTEMBER 2019

Pediatrics

Children's Hospital Winterthur, Switzerland, 1997-98
University children's Hospital Zurich, Switzerland, 1999-2001

Pulmonology

University children's Hospital Zurich, Switzerland, 1999-2001
Department of respiratory medicine, Princess Margaret Hospital for Children,
Perth, Western Australia, 2001-02

Consultant

Pediatrics University Children's Hospital, Zurich, Switzerland, since 2003
Pediatric pulmonology University Children's Hospital, Zurich, Switzerland, since 2004
Pediatric sleep medicine Pediatric Sleep center, University Children's Hospital Zurich, Switzerland, since 2006

Institutional function

Head of Division

Division of respiratory medicine, University Children's Hospital, Zurich, Switzerland, from 2007