🕒 Presentations

Since January 2026 Vincenza Trivigno is head of the Swiss Agency for Therapeutic Products (Swissmedic).

A native speaker of Italian and German, Vincenza Trivigno possesses extensive management experience in both the public and private sectors, as well as in-depth knowledge of the healthcare industry and Swissmedic.

From April 2021 to end 2025 she was the CEO of the Vitrea (former VAMED) Switzerland group, which manages four clinics and an outpatient rehabilitation center. She previously served as the Chancellor of the Canton of Aargau for five years, after serving successively as Secretary General of the Department of Public Health of the Canton of Zug, a member of the Board of Directors of Stadler Rail and a member of the Executive Management of Interpharma. From 2016 to 2021, she also served as Vice President of the Agency Council of Swissmedic.

Originally from Olten, Vincenza Trivigno obtained a degree in economics and social sciences from the University of Bern and an Executive Master of Business Law from the University of St. Gallen. She has also completed further training courses at the Harvard Law School and the London School of Economics.
